

NURTURING THE FOUR DIMENSIONS OF WHOLE-PERSON WELLNESS

Our signature LifeCycles Wellness Program is designed to help individuals make the most of every day. Whether it's through dining services, activities, personal care or just everyday conversations, every staff member understands and supports the social, spiritual, intellectual and physical needs of each person.

SOCIAL

Social engagement is encouraged through celebrations, family events, entertainment and special-interest clubs. Visits with pets and children help residents feel connected and loved.

SPIRITUAL

In addition to traditional weekly worship services, Activities to promote spiritual fulfillment may include meditation, aromatherapy, listening to music, volunteer projects or connecting with nature.

INTELLECTUAL

Activities such as crafts, games, baking and educational classes along with trips to local events and attractions, are all great ways to stimulate the brain.

PHYSICAL

Physical activities like walking, prescriptive exercise, yoga or other group classes, trips and fresh-air drives help manage stress and encourage independence.
